The Junior class engaged in many money making activities during the year. Among the projects were candy bars and carnations.

The Juniors won the Canned Food Drive. They stored food until the last day. Thus winning by a large amount. They also placed second in Homecoming and won the spirit stick twice. With 86 students, the Juniors were the largest class. President Suzy Clark stated, "the class did well in all areas of competition. We especially did well on the fund-raising projects. There was a lot of class involvement."

The Sophomore Class Holds Dance Marathon

The Sophomore class did a number of money-making projects to support their class. During basketball season they held the second annual dance marathon which proved to be as successful as in the past. The class also held a cake raffle during two lunch periods.

Freshmen Sponsor Dance And Raffle Turkeys.

The turkey raffle, heart-ograms, and a dance were the money-making projects the Freshman Class put on for the 1979-80 school year.

For the first time the Freshman PE Class had the opportunity to have Carole France, from Carole France School of Dance, come and teach them disco dances. At the end of their lessons a contest was held with Brent Counts and Koffie Warehime declared the winners.

Coming from all the different grade schools the Freshman had to learn to adjust to the different set up here at the high school, compared to the grade school. But by the end of the school year many new friends were made and being a freshman had worn off.
