The Class of 88 consisted of 57 seniors. The class won homecoming by a 30 point spread.

In preparing for graduation the class ordered cap and gowns, announcements, tassels and other memorabilia.

In the summer of 1987 Steve

Adelman, Shawn MacArthur, Irene Duda, and Audra Riggi attended Boys and Girls State. "It was a very new and exciting experience, where I met many new friends and learned many things," commented Shawn MacArthur. "Girls State is an unforgettable experience, worth the time and effort. I made friends that I will have for a life time," commented Irene Duda. "It was an exciting fun filled week that I'll never forget." commented Steve Adelman.

Members of the sophomore class are very talented, and excell athletically as well as academical-ly.

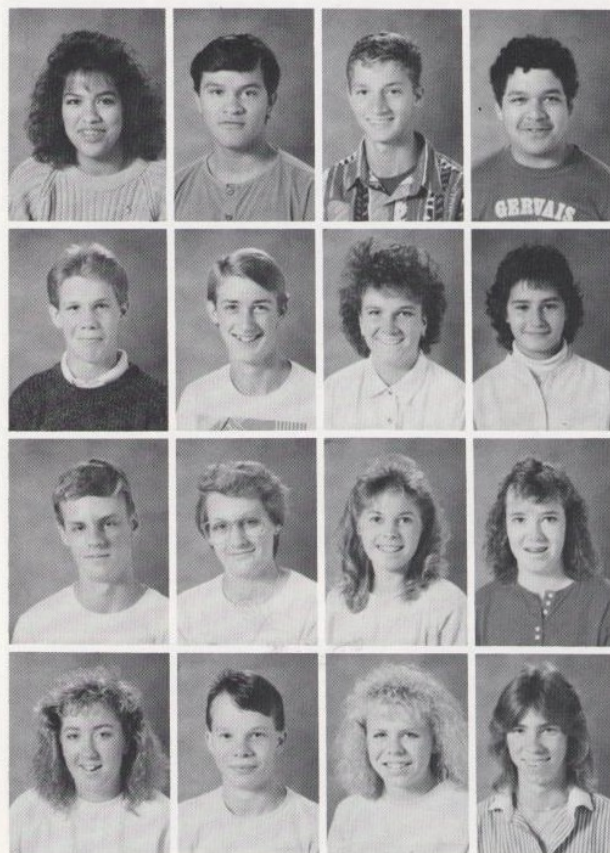

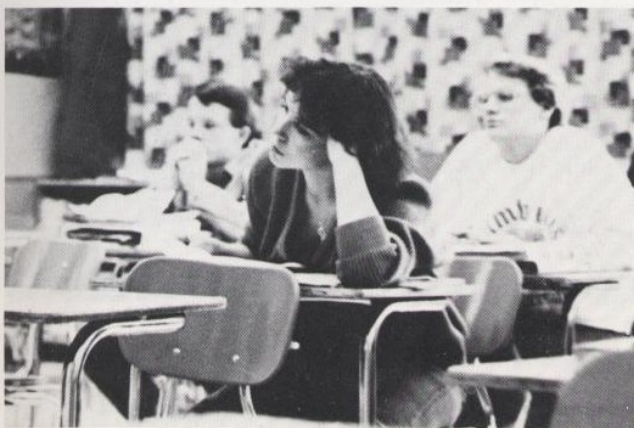

They have a lot of energy, and have put it to good use during pep assemblies, and other school activities. With the help of their new advisor, Mrs. Alice Soto, the sophomores have made the selling of value-checks their major fundraiser of the year. They have also purchased class rings in the spring.

The sophomore's spirit and enthusiasm has grown each year, and will have a strong influence on the school in the future.

The Sophomore class officers were President Barbie May, Vice President Ryan Allowitz, Secretary Cindy Dockins, Treasurer Boyd Bartholomew, Executive Council Representative Tomas Flores, Sargent at Arms Shawn Suing.

Some of the many challenges the freshman class faced during their first year of high school were making new friends, opening their lockers, and just adjusting to high school. They did well and became more involved in school activities as the year progressed.

With the help of their new adsor, Mrs. Bethe Kennedy, the freshmen sold Hershey candy bars and Heart-O-Grams. The freshman class officers were: President Adrian Pearmine, Treasurer Tina Bustamante, Secretary Sarah Henny, Student Council Representative Becky Land, and Sergeant At Arms Mark Garcia.
