

Memorandum of Agreement

Between

Gervais School District

And

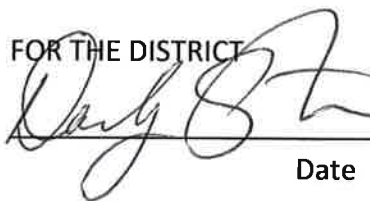

Gervais Education Association/The Mid-Valley Bargaining Council

OEA-OACE/NEA

The following represents the mutual agreement reached between Gervais School District #1 ("District") and the Gervais Education Association ("Union") The parties met and agreed to the following:

The District is a recipient of a STE(A)M Hub Grant which provides for a $50 per hour stipend for all employees, regardless of classification, to participate in professional development and training. The Hub sends the money directly to the district for disbursement through the district timecard and payroll system. The district will pay each participating employee $36.50 per hour with the remaining $13.50 going to associated payroll costs and benefits to account for the $50 per hour allowed by the STE(A)M Hub. This is for work and time completed during a school year. This MOU does not apply to work completed during the summer break.
