

HOLD ON TO YOUR EXISTING P-EBT CARD!

P-EBT SUMMER 2023 BENEFITS ARE COMING EARLY SEPTEMBER!

WHAT IS P-EBT FOR SUMMER 2023?

ODE/ODHS will issue benefits as a one-time payment amount of $120 to each eligible child. Starting early-September, eligible children will receive a letter in the mail, and benefits will be added to their existing P-EBT card from the Summer 2022 issuance. Newly eligible students can expect to receive a P-EBT card mailed to their home.

WHO'S ELIGIBLE?

Children eligible for P-EBT include children who, in the 2022-23 instructional year, were enrolled in May of 2023 in a school that participates in the National School Lunch (NSLP) program and

- Have been certified as eligible for free or reduced-price meals through an NSLP application or direct certification; OR
- Attended a school participating in the Community Eligible Provision (CEP) or Provision 2 for breakfast and lunch; OR
- Received SNAP, TANF, or Foster Care between July 2022 – August 2023.

Families who apply for NSLP through their school by August 31, 2023, may be eligible for Summer 2023 P-EBT. Approved applications will be used for Summer 2023 P-EBT and School Year 2023-24 NSLP meals.

Children under 6 can receive P-EBT benefits if they are not receiving SNAP and (1) attended a school participating in the NSLP May 2023 OR (2) are eligible for federal free/reduced price meals or attended a CEP or Provision 2 school.

Children with SNAP may receive the 2023 P-EBT School Year benefit later this year.

Note: children cannot receive both benefits simultaneously.
